

rosy outlook:

Cozy romance is back in a big way this year, but with an important new twist. "It's natural to crave the magical, dreamy mood pink-tinged hues create," says Dee Schlotter, brand manager for Pittsburgh Paints, whose Wonderland palette of the Real/Surreal World line inspired this look. "But in today's economy, there's also a desire to stay grounded and reflective." Fairy-tale shades of muted mauve, deep pink and creamy ivory are anchored with the commanding contrast of chocolate-brown, accented with airy accessories that lend a sense of openness and light to the room.

Ty's Tip

Pick your paint color last, pulling a variation on a hue from your window treatments, upholstery or a fun accessory.
